

Singer/Songwriters – Acoustic Duo
Anderson-Gram

Gayle Anderson-Gram & Bob Gram

Anderson-Gram is a wonderful husband and wife duo from New England—now living in Roseville, CA—who play a delightfully easy going blend of acoustic music.

“Hey, these guys are good!”

“This down-home appealing wife-husband duo have the friendly feel of Reilly and Maloney and Kate Wolf as well as the somber melodicism of Linda Thompson. Gayle Anderson-Gram’s mezzo soprano is resonant and appealing. Bob Gram provides wonderful harmony on many of these songs but solos with a rich baritone” – Victory Music Review, Seattle WA

“I try to have a lot of live music on my show... this (Anderson-Gram) is as good as it gets.” – Dennis Brunnenmeyer, Nevada City (CA) Limits. KVMR 89.5 FM

“Your music is like comfort food... a big plate of creamy mashed potatoes on a cold night.” – L. Bergeron, Salem, OR

“Gayle and Bob are winners ...beautifully crafted melodies, supported by strong harmony and tight arrangements with lyrics that stand by themselves.” – Roger Ebacher, REBACH MUSIC RECORDING, Newburyport, MA

“Just think of a cool, refreshing, New England breeze and that is Anderson-Gram.” – Dick Cerri, President, World Folk Music Association, Washington, D.C.

“These guys just blew us away with great musicianship, rapport with the audience and songs that you wish you had written yourself.” – David Fishken, Acton Jazz Cafe, Acton, MA

Where it All Begins is a fabulous album which with a spark of luck and good airplay could be where it all begins big time for Anderson-Gram.

– Nicky Rossiter, Rambles Cultural Arts Magazine

Watercolors is a highly recommended home-grown recording.

– Victory Music Review, Seattle, WA

RELEASED AUGUST 2011

On this Ride—Love the new CD. Gayle’s voice is exquisite as one might expect but Bob’s contributions are also massively good and an unexpected treat. Very creative, well done and a worthy project well beyond the pale.

– Dennis Brunnenmeyer, KVMR 89.5 FM, Nevada City, CA

“Gayle has a fine folk voice, strong, honest, and a little bit sweet. Bob provides nicely understated baritone harmonies. He can also take a turn at lead vocals and has a rugged smoky quality that fits well on the songs he sings.

Gayle Anderson-Gram and Bob Gram have been playing together since 1992. They have been married since 1997. It shows. Everything fits so well together.”

– Jam Music Magazine

Anderson-Gram — sharing the stage with...

- ♦ Tracy Grammer
- ♦ Small Potatoes
- ♦ Bob Franke
- ♦ Cosy Sheriden
- ♦ Jack Williams
- ♦ Joyce Andersen
- ♦ Jennifer Kimball
- ♦ Lucy Kaplansky
- ♦ Slaid Cleaves
- ♦ Cormac McCarthy
- ♦ Greg Greenway
- ♦ Mark Hansen
- ♦ Lorraine & Bennett Hammond
- ♦ Paul Rishell & Annie Raines

and performing at venues across the US & Canada...

- ♦ Kate Wolf Memorial Music Festival, Leytonville, CA
- ♦ San Francisco Folk Festival
- ♦ American River Folk Festival, Georgetown, CA
- ♦ Dave’s Cave, Auburn, CA
- ♦ Cosmic Cafe, Placerville, CA
- ♦ Sonoma Songwriters Showcase, Cotati, CA
- ♦ Fitzpatrick Winery, Fair Play, CA
- ♦ Placer County Fair, Roseville, CA
- ♦ Shingle Springs Opera House, Shingle Springs, CA
- ♦ Uncle Calvin’s CH, Dallas, TX
- ♦ Shenandoah CH, Shepardstown, WV
- ♦ Bethlehem Musikfest, Bethlehem, PA
- ♦ Thomas Point Beach Bluegrass Festival, Brunswick, ME
- ♦ Acton Jazz Cafe, Acton, MA
- ♦ Artichoke Music, Portland, OR
- ♦ Linden Tree CH, Wakefield, MA
- ♦ First Night, Portsmouth, NH
- ♦ Seafest, Yarmouth, Nova Scotia
- ♦ City Hall Plaza, Tampa, FL

www.andersongram.com

andegram@surewest.net

Roseville, CA 916-412-1997